12th Night Reflections

...The 4th Annual Gathering at HQ, Apr.28th, was a great success. Staff Davis, of the Afghanistan Perceivers, entertained us all in true "Irregular" fashion. ... A small planning session was held May 25th, and all were startled at the appearance of James Moriarty (a St. Pete Beach realtor). ... Mark your calendar! SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13th. when we go "a-Carrolling" - our Fall Gathering at Mike Carroll's in St. Pete. Resident Members will receive further details. ... Interested in a deeper probe into the Canon? If so, contact Bill Ward who is setting up a "Diogenes Club" study group. Sounds like an excellent idea. ... Plans for the JOHN BENNETT SHAW Sherlockian Workshop (January 18-20, 1980) are coming along in good shape. We hope all PPOffers will clear the decks for that very special weekend as we welcome S'ian "Sno-Birds" who will be seeking refuge in "The Pleasant Places". ... Tom Reesor, one of the Charter Members of PPOff, reminded us of an error in our Scion's title. According to Tom, it should have been "The Charming Climates of Florida", and that somewhere along the line the "Pleasant Places" took over. Do you think we ought to change to the C.C. of F.? Let the Recorder know your opinion. ...

... This Recorder has received the usual plethora of correspondence. Thanks to Paul Gunning, Tom Dandrew, Peter Blau, Caroline Everett, Ron Jordan, Bill Warford, Ted Schulz, Charlie Haniman, Staff Davis, Paul Singleton, Stephanie Rapp, Harold Niver, Ann Byerly, Scott Morrison, Marion Wilcox, Gerry Stone, Jane Blasingame, Jon Lellenberg, Andy Malec, Frances VanAntwerp, Wanda Butts, Julian Wolff, and Paul Herbert (hope I didn't omit anyone). .. Rec'd VOL.2, No.2 of The Commonplace Book (Andrew J. Peck,

From Pat Pierce the last edition of the "Hydraulic Press" (we'll miss it) and a beautiful (autographed) print of the Master by Karil Skrukud. George Skornickel sent "The Subjoined Paper" an excellent quarterly by The Reigate Squires. $4 per annum. .. Ron DeWaal has up-dated his superb Directories of Scions & Business Establishments. ... Willie Gomes has organized the "Sherlockian Society of Miami" and held a dinner meeting. This Recorder was unable to attend, but we all wish our Holmesian neighbors well. ... The Camden House Journal, an excellent publication, is available from N. Williams,

A "must" in any Sherlockian library.

'More shirred eggs, Watson?'

A Holmesian brunch was held at Chicago's Sherlock's Home, part of the Jacques Restaurant Group of Canteen Corp., to mark the 125th birthday of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's fictional super sleuth.

Dr. Keith Simpson, senior pathologist of London's Scotland Yard, presided over the festivities, which featured a selection of food from Dining with Sherlock Holmes, a cookbook based on the gourmet tastes of Doyle's hero.

Oxtail soup, shirred eggs with chicken livers, breast of pheasant with grapes and trifle were among the items offered buffet-style at the brunch.

Peter Salchow, GM for Canteen's Jacques Group.

According to Peter Salchow, general manager of the Jacques Group, the buffet was maintained through lunch. Customers were offered the English treats at no charge as part of the birthday celebration. □

THE NEW SHERLOCK'S

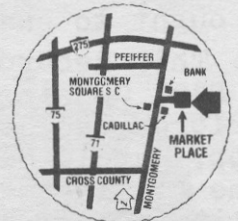

Singularly Superb!

"Holmes and I have recently made a delightful dining discovery. We had heard that noted restaurateur Peter Glaubitz was adding his creative expertise to a famous Cincinnati Restaurant. After a bit of searching we discovered that restaurant... Sherlock's!

It was marvelous. In addition to the traditional English Roast Beef and Yorkshire Pudding, Peter has added such delights as Veal with Artichoke Hearts and Mushrooms, Trout in Puff Pastry with Bernaise, and the tempting Trifle dessert.

I thought it a truly delightful evening." "And so reasonably priced, my dear Watson."

"Quite right, Holmes!"

Youngsters like playing detective but there are not many kids like Joey Trimble who have the opportunity to solve a real mystery—as is the case in My Dear Uncle Sherlock. Joey, and his Uncle George have always enjoyed playing Sherlock Holmes and Watson, investigating mysterious clues and searching for clues. My Dear Uncle Sherlock unfolds what happens when they are confronted with a real-life crime and serious trouble for super-sleuth Joey. My Dear Uncle Sherlock is adapted from a short story by Hugh Pentacost. It offers an opportunity to become "Detectives" along with the central characters, and can be used as an introduction to fiction.

Sherlock still gets the cases

HERE's a mystery: Why do thousands of people write a detective who never existed asking him to solve crimes?

Elementary — that detective is, of course, the legendary Sherlock Holmes.

"People write to Mr. Holmes about everything imaginable," says Chris Bazlington, whose job is answering every letter the sleuth receives.

Bazlington works in a London, England, office, but not at Holmes' famous residence, 221-B Baker Street. No such address ever existed.

Bazlington said the spate of new Holmes movies has also spurred lots of letters from children who believe Holmes is real.
